Audio Relay – Music Everywhere At Home

Pfäffikon/Switzerland, November 15th, 2011

ARCTIC is pleased to announce the release of Audio Relay and its free remote application, Remote AR. Multi-room entertainment is now made simple and easy, use your smart phone to browse your centralized library, create your playlist and play it in your room. Meanwhile, your spouse/roommate can do the same in his/her room. There is only one library to organize and maintain and everybody can enjoy it anytime.

Installation is extremely simplified, just connect the Audio Relay to your home Wi-Fi network, sit back with your smart phone and enjoy.

This compact, stylish and intelligent device features a glossy black form factor for a sleek appearance to match your modern lifestyle at home.

The Audio Relay is available at an MSRP of $199.95 USD or €149.95 EUR (excluding VAT) and comes with a two-year limited warranty. Simply enjoy your music around the house with the Audio Relay.

Remote AR is now available for free download on the Android Market and will be available on the App Store in December 2011.
